

Want to learn an instrument?

Learning a musical instrument can bring incredible rewards and satisfaction. There's also research that the benefits of learning an instrument can include...

- Improved concentration
- Improved co-ordination
- Relaxation
- Improved patience
- Boosted self-confidence
- Improved verbal, perceptual, numeric, spatial and motor skills
- Improved reading, spelling, maths and listening skills
- Stress relief
- Improved quality of life

The benefits of having a professional teacher who is a member of the Musicians' Union include...

- £10m Public Liability Insurance
- Access to Criminal Records Bureau Disclosure
- Access to Child Protection training
- Access to up-to-date information on developments in music education
- Access to Continuing Professional Development
- Access to an accredited Teaching Diploma
- Advice and assistance for music teachers, to enable them to carry out their duties professionally

To find out more about the Musicians' Union, please visit theMU.org or email teachers@theMU.org

Musicians'
Union

MAKE SURE THAT YOUR TEACHER IS A MEMBER OF THE MUSICIANS' UNION
